Joke(s) of the month:

As a Drill Sergeant you are trained to break-down then build-up and provide motivation for self-development of all Basic Trainees. It was our first day on the range on a typical hot Missouri day and the Trainees were feeling confident and cocky. I watched one Trainee as he aimed and squeezed the trigger for his first shot. "Good news and bad news," I said. "The good news: You got a bull's eye." Before the trainees' head could swell, I added, "But it was in somebody else's target." As we were marching back to the barracks I slipped and tumbled down a gully. Irate, humiliated and my Drill Sergeant Hat falling off and getting dirty I scrambled back up amid snickers, laughs. I immediately yelled, "Those who laughed, get down and give me 20!" about 6 seeing the wrath that was to happen fell to the ground quickly and did their push-ups. Meanwhile, I glared at the others. When they completed their 20 push-ups, I moved those Trainees to the shade and then stated, "As for the rest of you FOR LYING I will provide motivation for self-development of your morals and ethics with 40 push-ups, 100 flutter kicks, and you will finish the march with your weapons at Port Arms with your arms fully extended in front of you." Weeks later, I purposely fell, and it was quieter than a library, mission accomplished!

Time and Place: Our next Promenade is April 8th, 2021 at "The Edge Restaurant" in Freeburg, HWY 63 past Peaceful Valley Lane on your left across from Quaker Windows. Cocktails at 6pm - Promenade at 7 pm. See you all there.
